REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Board of Directors of
Financial Technology Securities, LLC
DBA Fintech Securities

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Financial Technology Securities, LLC DBA Fintech Securities as of December 31, 2016, and the related statements of operations, changes in members' equity, and cash flows for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of Financial Technology Securities, LLC's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Financial Technology Securities, LLC as of December 31, 2016, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The supplemental information contained in schedules 1, 2 and 3 has been subjected to audit procedures performed in conjunction with the audit of Financial Technology Securities, LLC's financial statements. The supplemental information is the responsibility of Financial Technology Securities, LLC's management. Our audit procedures included determining whether the supplemental information reconciles to the financial statements or the underlying accounting and other records, as applicable, and performing procedures to test the completeness and accuracy of the information presented in the supplemental information. In forming our opinion on the supplemental information, we evaluated whether the supplemental information, including its form and content, is presented in conformity with 17 C.F.R. §240.17a-5. In our opinion, the supplemental information is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

Financial Technology Securities, LLC
DBA Fintech Securities
(A Limited Liability Company)

Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2016

1. Organization and Nature of Business

Financial Technology Securities, LLC DBA Fintech Securities (the Company) is a broker-dealer registered with the Securities Exchange Commission (SEC) and FINRA. The Company is a Georgia limited liability company (LLC).

Since the Company is a limited liability company, the member is not liable for the debts, obligations, or liabilities of the Company, whether arising in contract, tort or otherwise, unless the member has signed a specific guarantee.

The Company is a wholly owned subsidiary of Innovest Systems, Inc.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of presentation

The Company maintains its books and records on the accrual basis of accounting for financial reporting purposes, which is in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles which is required by the SEC and FINRA.

The Company is engaged in a single line of business as a securities broker-dealer, and developer of software for its own and customer uses.

Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Deposit with clearing organization

The Company is required to maintain a cash deposit, in the name of the Company, with the clearing organization under the terms of its agreement with the clearing organization.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

Accounts receivable

Accounts receivable are stated at the amount management expects to collect from outstanding balances. Management provides for probable uncollectible amounts through a charge to earnings and a credit to a valuation allowance based on its assessment of the current collectability status of accounts, which includes specific losses for known troubled accounts and other available evidence. There are no accounts receivable at December 31, 2016.

Commissions receivable

Commissions receivable represents commissions receivable for transactions executed by the clearing organization on behalf of the Company's clients and are net of related expenses. Commissions receivable was $488,654 as of December 31, 2016. Management considers commissions receivable to be fully collectible, therefore no allowance for uncollectible amounts is necessary.

Property and equipment

Property and equipment is stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and consists of furniture and office equipment. Depreciation is computed on the same basis that the Company uses for its tax returns. This basis encompasses using the modified accelerated cost recovery system (MACRS) using useful lives of five to seven years. The Company follows the policy of capitalizing all major additions, renewals and betterments. Upon sale or retirement of property or equipment, the related cost and accumulated depreciation for such items are removed from balance sheet and any gain or loss is included in the results of operations.

Developed computer software

Developed computer software is stated at cost. There is no amortization for 2016 since the software is still under development, once placed in service it will be amortized over five years.

Customer list

The customer list was initially measured based on its fair value on the date of acquisition. The client list is being amortized on a straight-line basis over a period of 5 years.

Goodwill

Goodwill was initially measured based on its fair value on the date of acquisition. The Company tests goodwill for impairment annually, or more frequently if circumstances indicate impairment may have occurred. No impairment in goodwill was determined for the year ended December 31, 2016.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

Revenue recognition

Commission revenue is derived from the Company acting as an agent buying and selling securities on behalf of its customers. Commissions and related expenses are recorded on a trade date basis as securities transactions occur. The Company is evaluating new revenue recognitions standards for securities broker-dealers and will implement as required.

Deferred revenue

Certain customers have prepaid commissions. Such commissions are reflected as deferred revenue on the statement of financial condition and are recognized as revenue on a pro rata basis when the commission is actually earned by the Company. Deferred revenue as of December 31, 2016 was $443,082 which is net of $182,053 in customer debits/receivables.

Income taxes

The Company is a single member limited liability company and as such, is not required to file its own tax return. Accordingly no provision for income taxes is provided in the financial statements as they are the responsibility of the individual member.

The Company has adopted the provisions of FASB Accounting Standards Codification 740-10, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes. Under FASB ASC 740-10, the Company is required to evaluate each of its tax positions to determine if they are more likely than not to be sustained if the taxing authority examines the respective position. A tax position includes an entity's status and the decision not to file a return. The Company has evaluated each of its tax positions and has determined that it has no uncertain tax positions for which a provision or liability for income taxes is necessary.

Cash and cash equivalents

The Company defines cash equivalents as highly liquid investments with original maturities of less than 90 days that are not held for sale in the ordinary course of business.

3. Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (SEC Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. Rule 15c3-1 also provides that equity capital may not be withdrawn or cash dividends paid if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1. As of December 31, 2016, the Company had net capital of $905,640 which was $870,608 in excess of its required net capital of $35,032. The Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was 0.58 to 1.

4. Commitments

In January 2016 the company entered into an operating lease with an initial non-cancelable term commencing April 1, 2016 and terminating on March 31, 2019. Immediately succeeding the expiration of the lease, and provided the Company is not in default, the lease shall continue on a month-to-month basis for a period of up to 36 months, unless terminated by either party upon not less than 60 days prior written notice from the terminating party. Rent expense for the year ended December 31, 2016 was $25,365. The Company estimates future rent expense using the straight-line method as follows:

| Year ending December 31 | |
|-------------------------|------------------|
| 2017 | $ 25,649 |
| 2018 | 25,649 |
| 2019 | 6,412 |
| Thereafter | - |
| Total | $ 57,710 |

5. Concentration

The Company maintains its cash in a bank deposit account, which at times, may exceed federally insured limits. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts and management believes it is not subjected to any significant credit risk on its cash and cash equivalents.

6. Indemnifications

In the normal course of its business, the Company indemnifies and guarantees certain service providers, such as clearing and custody agents, trustees and administrators, against specified potential losses in connection with their acting as an agent of, or providing services to, the Company. The Company also indemnifies some clients against potential losses incurred in the event specified third-party service providers, including sub-custodians and third-party brokers, improperly executed transactions. For the year ended December 31, 2016 the Company experienced no material losses as result of such indemnifications. The maximum potential amount of future payments that the Company could be required to make under these indemnifications cannot be estimated. However, the Company believes that it is unlikely it will have to make material payments under these arrangements and has not recorded any contingent liability in the financial statements for these indemnifications.

7. Subsequent Events

The Company evaluated subsequent events through February 20, 2017, the date the financial statements were issued. The Company did not identify any material subsequent events requiring adjustment to or disclosure in its financial statements.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Board of Directors of
Financial Technology Securities, LLC
DBA Fintech Securities

We have reviewed management's statements, included in Financial Technology Securities, LLC DBA Fintech Securities Annual Exemption Report, in which (1) Financial Technology Securities, LLC DBA Fintech Securities identified the following provisions of 17 C.F.R. §15c3-3(k) under which Financial Technology Securities, LLC DBA Fintech Securities claimed an exemption from 17 C.F.R. §240.15c3-3: k(2)(ii) (the "exemption provisions") and (2) Financial Technology Securities, LLC DBA Fintech Securities stated that Financial Technology Securities, LLC DBA Fintech Securities met the identified exemption provisions throughout the most recent fiscal year without exception. Financial Technology Securities, LLC DBA Fintech Securities' management is responsible for compliance with the exemption provisions and its statements.

Our review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about Financial Technology Securities, LLC DBA Fintech Securities' compliance with the exemption provisions. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the provisions set forth in paragraph (k)(2)(ii) of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.
